Foreword

The 1963 Arrow is designed to stand as a bridge between you and a rapidly dimming memory. Each plank in the bridge and each splinter of the handrail will represent an occasion worthy of your remembrance, and the supports and nails holding the span together will become a common band of having been students at the same school at the same time.

This Arrow will remind us of times we have spent together and each recorded event will bring to mind hundreds of memories never written down.

These remembered things will underscore the lines of this Arrow and fill in the missing links of restored memory, and thus will you remember other events . . . their sounds and smells and textures . . . events that should never be forgotten.

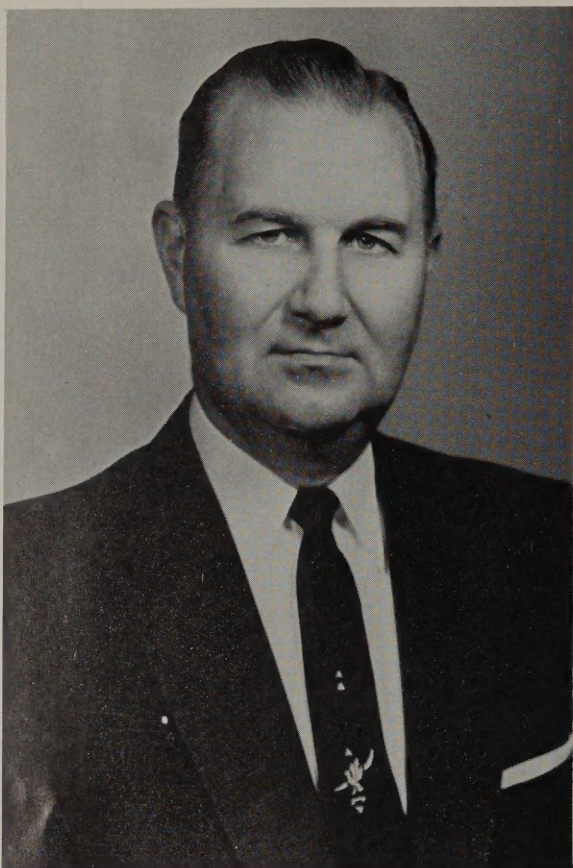

We, the Class of 1963, dedicate this Arrow to you, Mr. Patrilla.

The possibility of producing a book the size of the Arrow with a relatively inexperienced staff in one year without professional advice of an extremely high caliber is inconceivable. The requisites for a yearbook advisor are technical knowledge to a high degree, a keen business sense, patience, the ability to work with people, to advise without a dictating manner, to push without shoving, and an understanding of the difficulties which have arisen in the past and unheard-of new problems which invariably sprout up with each new staff. A few of these things can be found in all men, but all of them in only a few. Mr. Patrilla is one of the few, for which the Arrow of 1963 has been fortunate.

The History of a Class

Some plunged head-on into the new adventure; others held back and observed their new surroundings with hesitation. But sooner or later, we all became an undeniable part of the student body of Washington High School, and chose our class officers: Tom Blanchard, President; Verna Rinderknecht, Vice-President; Mary Brown, Secretary-Treasurer; Janice Stueck, Kit Kammerer, and Barb Glass, Student Council members.

Our footing a little steadier, our minds a little surer now that we had faced successfully the trials of our freshman year, we came back to school as sophomores. This year we elected as our leaders: Tom Blanchard, President; Ted Mann, Vice-President; Sheryl Pauley, Secretary; Mike Segebarth, Treasurer; Barb Glass, Jerry Garwood, and Ann Waldorf, Student Council members.

Filled with an abundant supply of ambition and determination and wearing our newly-selected class rings, we juniors set about the task of earning money. Then we spent that hard earned money and excess energy to build our Junior-Senior Prom, "Southern Cotillion." This year's officers were: Janice Stueck, President; Norman Goodell, Vice-President; Claudia Crisman, Secretary; Jerry Garwood, Treasurer; Ann Waldorf, Anna Mae Johnson, and Dale Torpey, Student Council members.

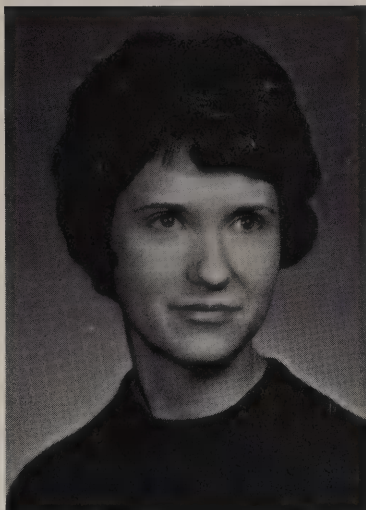

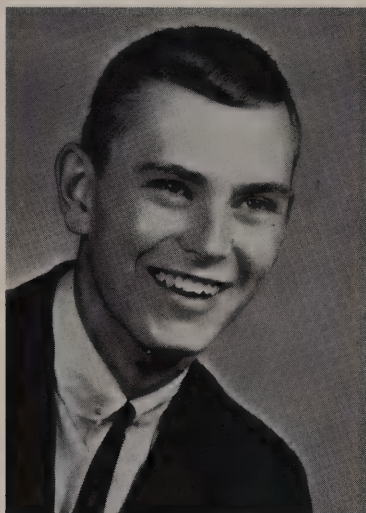

Suddenly, we, the ones who seemed to have just entered this building, were the ones who would soon be leaving it. And yet those four years had been long ones, too, for they had made great changes in our personalities and our characters. This was the year of the awaited skip day, class party, and, of course, graduation. Senior Class officers were: Janice Stueck, President; Jerry Fitzgerald, Vice-President; Mary Brown, Secretary; Claudia Crisman, Treasurer; Dale Torpey, and Mike Segebarth, Student Council members.

Now we have done everything in high school for the "last time." Though sometimes anxiously anticipated, graduation has brought memories of the things which have gone before, memories of Washington High School which shall linger in the minds of the Class of '63.

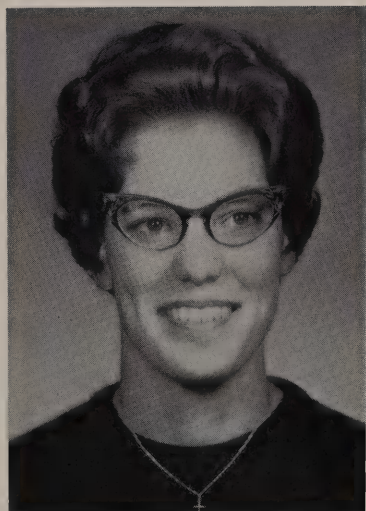

DOUG STUFFLEBEAM
 "I've never seen a person who could resist me."

JANICE STUECK
 "Wit and wisdom were born with this woman."

JERRY FITZGERALD
 "Not too serious, not too gay . . . just a rare good fellow when it comes to play."

SHARI GABRIELSON
 "Music flows from her fingertips."

DALE TORPEY
 "I hate girls; they irritate me. I love to be irritated."

MARCIA McCLURG
 "The quiet girl with her quiet way will surprise the world someday."

ANN WALDORF
 "She carries the stars in her eyes and the sun in her smile."

RICHARD GEATER
 "Farm bred and school raised."

BARBARA GLASS
 "From her eyes so modestly beaming, you'd never think of the mischief she's scheming."

STEVE YERKES
 "When I find my proper groove, a famous man I'll surely prove."

ROSEMARY FLICKINGER
 "This tall gal, every inch a pal."

GLEN GEATER
 "I used to be a woman hater."

TED MANN

"Hate is jealousy; jealousy is love; love is hate; I hate girls."

VERNA RINDERKNECHT

"I was cut out to be an angel, but somebody stole the pattern."

GARY HALVA

"Don't look at me, girls; it makes me nervous."

MIKE SEGEBARTH
"Look out for quiet guys
. . . live wires are always insulated."

SHERYL PAULEY

"It isn't enough to do good,
one must do it the right way."

CLAUDIA CRISMAN

"As nice as she looks."

SHERRY EDWARDS
 "She's a regular teakettle
 - Always bubbling over."

GARY SIMNACHER
 "The early bird catches the worm, but who the heck wants to eat worms."

JEAN WHITE
 "Marriage is an evil, but a necessary evil."

DAVID DAVIS
 "He wouldn't be good if he could and he couldn't be good if he would."

JANICE McVEY
 "Blessed are those who say little - for they can't be quoted."

DON HOLST
 "Even if a farmer intends to loaf, he gets up in time to get an early start."

BAYARD SCOTT
"I have so much to do, I think I'll take a nap."

SUSAN KEEFER
"Silence is golden, but who am I to make money."

LARRY WILEY
"I'm stumped; I ought to be a tree."

GORDON WEIR
"Small, but does he get around!"

JUDY JOHNSON
"She's like a blotter - soaks it all up and gets it all backwards."

BONNIE BIRKER
"The gift of gab."

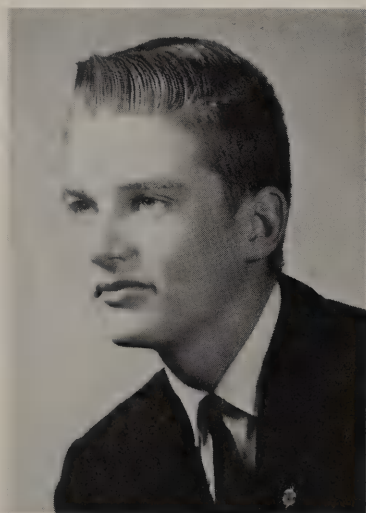

MARILYN PRIMROSE
 "Something old, something new, that's what she's looking forward to."

JERRY GARWOOD
 "Being seen and not heard is too old-fashioned for me."

BETH ALLGOOD
 "A valuable asset to the senior class."

DE MONT DAKE
 "The harder I tried the gooder to be, the worser
 I am."

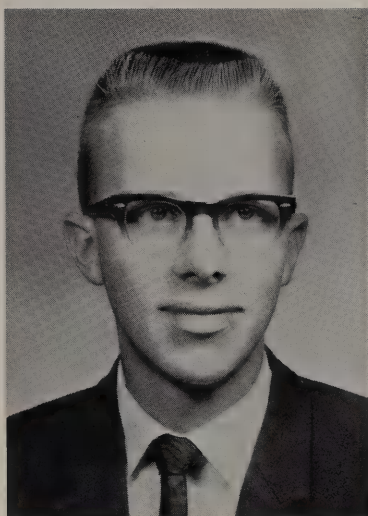

ANNIE PARET
 "Softly speaks and sweetly smiles."

GENE HEALY
 "To work or not to work
 . . . Is there a question?"

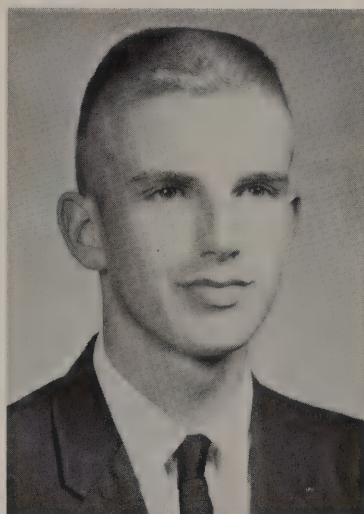

TOM MUSSMAN
"Patience, and shuffle the cards."

MARY BROWN
"Her life a rainbow, ever colorful."

BILL SUMMY
"He'd stop St. Peter in the middle of roll call to argue."

RICHARD WOOD
"Smile! You're on candid camera."

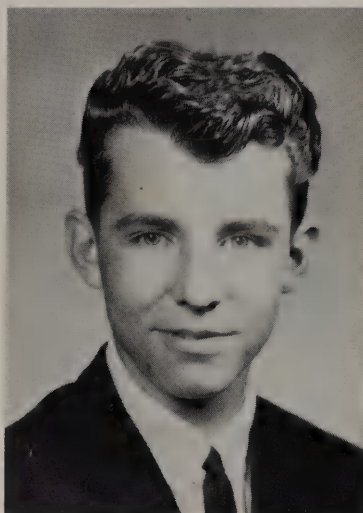

LINDA LYONS
"My kingdom for a pair of scissors; I love to cut up."

SHARON BODDICKER
"And she hath an amiable charm."

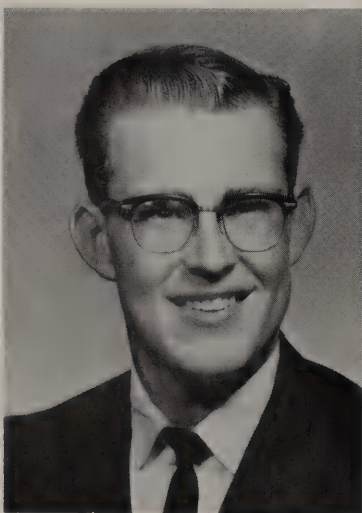

JOY MUIRHEAD
 "But oh, the den of things in the darkness of her eyes."

CRAIG HILLESTAD
 "One of our stars, at least he's always out at night."

JANET ANDERSON
 "I'd have gotten bigger, if I hadn't stopped growing."

CARL EVANS
 "Not lazy, just doesn't feel like working."

ANNA MAY JOHNSON
 "A ring on the finger is worth two on the phone."

MARVIN ROSTER
 "What I don't know won't worry me."

ROY WOLFE

"Blessed is the man who invented sleep."

KAYE POLLOCK

"An old maid I'll never be, as long as there are fish in the sea."

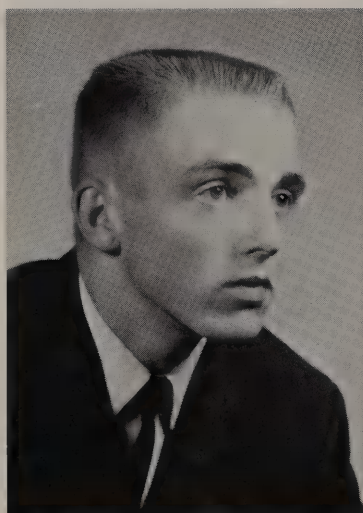

GAY YEDLICK

"Who ever invented work should have finished it."

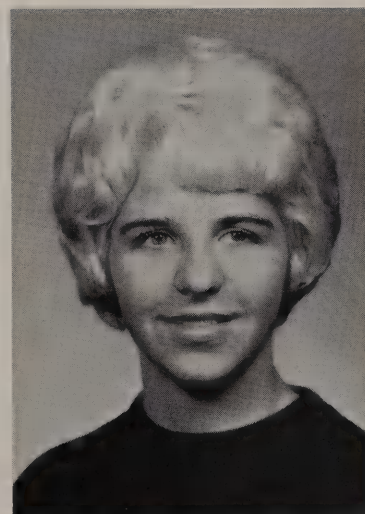

BOB DOWNS

"He's got a far away look in his eyes - he's looking at his feet."

JILL BYAM

"School is just one of my activities."

JANET SIMON

"Born with the gift of laughter."

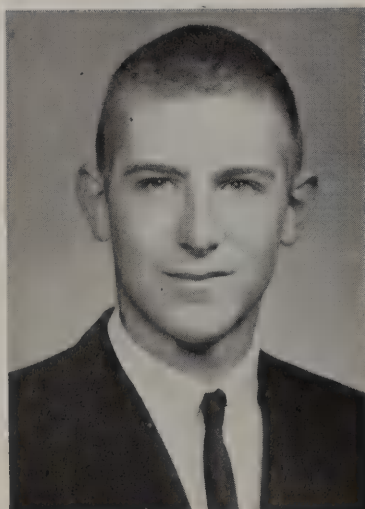

DIANA FUCHS
 "Cheerful, quiet, pleasant, and gay, charming in her own way."

WILLIAM SMITH
 "Just being happy is a swell thing."

BEVERLY POLLOCK
 "Happy-go-lucky, gay and free. It takes a lot to bother me."

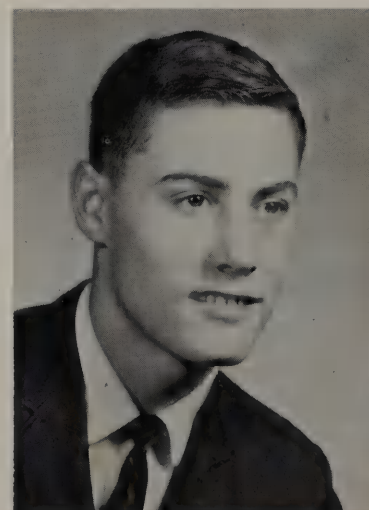

EDWARD RHINEHART
 "He ain't a Ford, but he can sure rattle on."

KAREN GULICK
 "All I know is that I know everything."

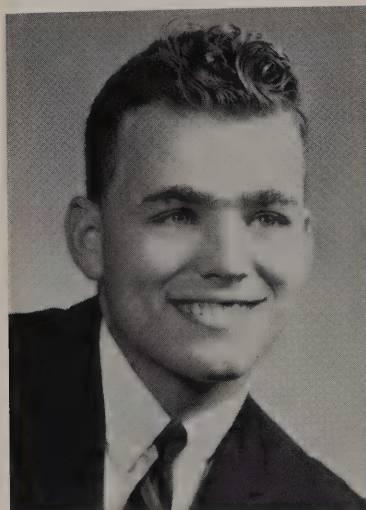

JIM SPAULDING
 "Caesar died because he was ambitious; I shall live forever."

CHERYL BIRAM
"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

BILL WHITCOMB
"I'll consider anything."

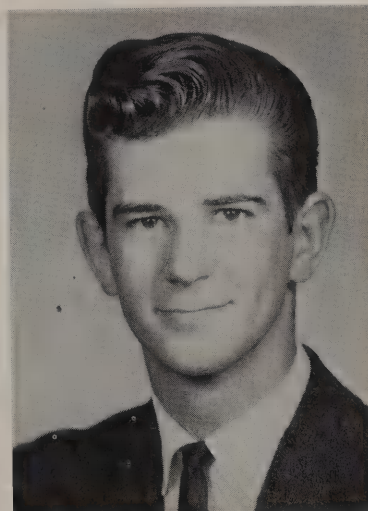

PAT CLOSE
"Silence is as deep as eternity, speech is as shallow as time."

WILMA LEE
"Because is a woman's reason."

GARY SCHIRM
"If you're tired of school, skip a day."

KEITH NEUENDORF
"Man's best possession is a sympathetic wife."

PAULA DAVIS
 "A 'flaming' youth . . .
 we mean her hair."

DONALD RUEHLE
 "Hold on everybody, I'm thinking."

EVE PEDERSON
 "I'm not asking you, I'm telling you."

VIRGINIA LANE
 "Is she talking again or yet?"

NORMAN GOODELL
 "Leader of men - follower of woman."

SHARON TURNER
 "Don't tell me what I mean;
 let me figure it out for myself."

WILLIAM HOOD

"Rather athletic, slender and tall, a good chum and a friend to all."

ELSIE DUNCKLEE

"Love is like the measles - we all have to go through it."

HAZEL BUTTERFIELD

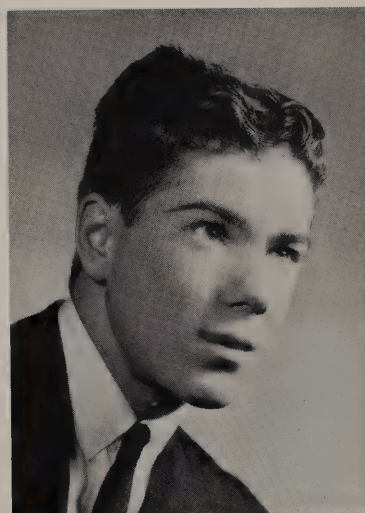

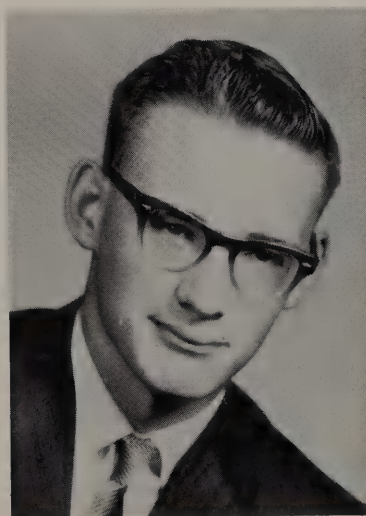

"You may know her for the noise she doesn't make."

WANITA WOOD

"Some say she's quiet. Ask her friends!"

HAROLD SCHMELZER

"There is no great genius without some touch of madness."

RONALD ANDERSON

"It's not what you do, it's what you get away with."

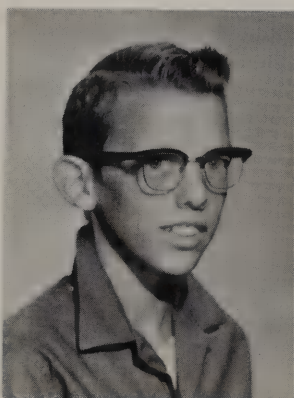

MARY FERGUSON
 "Early to bed, early to rise - and you miss all the fun."

BOBETTE THARP
 "Studies when there's nothing else to do."

Dear Mary.

Hi sweetie! I don't really know where to begin with you!!! I really hate to say anything to nice 'cause you might think I really liked you! Joke!!!!!!

Really, we've had a lot of fun over the years! You're a real sweet kid and I'll never forget you! Of course I don't see

The Senior Class
of
WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL
Vinton, Iowa presented Southern Cotillion
Friday Evening, May Eleventh
Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-two

We sat on the terrace of the pillared mansion, sipped our mint julep, and dined to the music of a southern serenade. Our position was fine for watching the arrival of the late guests as they pulled up in their carriages. Then we hurried to the garden where we walked hand in hand down the cobblestone path, which led to the pond, and over the old wooden bridge. We lingered only long enough to feast our eyes upon the bird bath and the beautiful swan and smell the fragrance of the budding flowers. Then a melodious refrain found its way through the air, rich with the scent of fresh blossoming trees, and floated to our listening ears. So under the twinkling stars of the enchanted night, we danced to the music of the Rockin' Flames.

Yes, this was the rewarding result of all our hours of sweat and toil and anxious anticipation. This was our own "Southern Cotillion."

A tribute to Washington High School's foreign student for 1963. Annie Paret, "une Francaise de Paris," soon found her way into all our hearts. Her sincere interest in us and our way of life and her desire to both teach and to learn, have made her a wonderful good-will ambassador, who will not be soon forgotten.

National Honor Society

Ann Waldorf, Verna Rinderknecht, Judy Johnson, Janice Stueck, Barb Glass, Sharon Turner.

Membership in the Washington High School Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools is the highest honor that the school can confer on any student. Election to membership in the organization is based on Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. Members are chosen on the recommendation of the faculty, and initiated annually in a solemn ceremony in front of the entire student body. During the second semester of each school year, approximately ten per cent of the senior class, and five per cent of the junior class are elected to membership in the National Honor Society.

Coach Bob Higby moves hundreds of miles but Vinton Vikings couldn't move that extra yard for six points after an 0-8 win-loss year, last year. The Vikings came back to take their first victory from county-rival Belle Plaine. However, it was a short-lived success as the Vikings could not find the holes in any of their conference games. It seemed as though the Vikings could plunge 99 yards, but could never plunge that last yard.

Coach Bob Higby retires after having coached Vinton to sharing the WaMaC Conference title in the 1959 campaign.

The biggest organization of W.H.S. began a year of work, fun, and excitement as the hot days of August ushered the new school year into full swing. Many events mark this 1963 G.R.A. year as one of the best years yet. With over 125 members, this club successfully sponsored one of the biggest dances in W.H.S.

The real excitement and fun got into swing the night of initiation, which was held at the Riverside Park. What funny sights - those initiates in diapers! After the fun had subsided, bowling intramurals were underway. This was a fantabulous year - Linda Davis bowled a 219! Congratulations! But no longer had bowling ended, when volleyball began. Here again showed the success of this club, with more than 100 girls out for this sport. As usual, the class tournaments were held, and well . . . we know who won. But revenge was soon in sight as basketball started and all the hot shooters were really showing who knew the most about basketball. This year different rules were used, the National Girl's Basketball Rules. What a switch and most of the time what a mess!

No year is complete though until the girls have had their chance to get new sweatshirts to display their honor of being part of G.R.A. The new sweatshirts are old-gold with black letters. Real sharp!

Fun was on the sidelines as sixteen girls from our club went to SCI and participated in their Sports Day. There these gals placed 4th out of 17 towns. A real fine job done very well. The last thing to be enjoyed was the Mother-Daughter Banquet. This was surely to be the biggest and best of all banquets yet, and why not? For our club has grown bigger and better every year, doing more to benefit more, to show just why girls like to be a part of the greatest club around, the Girl's Recreation Association!
